Your experience matters.

Town Hall is designed to build bridges by allowing participants to tell their stories, identify shared issues, and find common ground for action, enhancing empowerment around SUD issues.

About Regional Groups

Regional Groups bring together people with lived and living experience to discuss local challenges, identify solutions, and influence policies and services that support recovery and wellbeing. Be part of the conversation and help make a difference in your community.

Who should come

Individuals in recovery, active users, family members, providers, community members, or anyone committed to improving our recovery system.

What to expect

- Town Hall: information, speakers and questions
- Focus Group discussion

Full schedule is sent with your registration confirmation.
