Your experience matters.

Town Hall is designed to build bridges by allowing participants to tell their stories, identify shared issues, and find common ground for action, enhancing empowerment around SUD issues.

Regional Discussion

Regional Groups bring together people with lived and living experience to discuss local challenges, identify solutions, and influence policies and services that support recovery and wellbeing. Be part of the conversation and help make a difference in your community.

Focused Sessions

The One-Hour Focused Sessions are interactive conversations designed to deepen understanding of the SUD issues presented, encouraging participants to respond to one another's comments in a safe, non-judgmental environment.

What to expect

- Check-in, registration and continental breakfast
- Town Hall: information, speakers and questions
- Regional Discussion
- Lunch
- Focus Groups (small group discussions)
- Closing, certificates and gift cards

Who should come

Individuals who are active substance users, participants in recovery from substance use, and others impacted by SUD, including caretakers, loved ones, and community members.
